

6 Letters

8 President's Message

The importance of freedom of the press to a healthy democracy.

9 Opening Statements

A controversial Supreme Court decision on eminent domain and a pink house gets made into a movie.

10 MAKING IT WORK In our new column on work-life balance, a female BigLaw partner offers five tips.

11 A University of Washington law course explores the limits of executive power.

12 Ten questions for Mark Roscoe, who leads a double life as a family law solo and a fashion designer.

14 General counsel work for diversity by making bold moves to achieve lasting change.

15 Short takes and fast facts on the law. / Cartoon of the month: See last month's contest winner, and craft a caption for the current cartoon.

16 Docket

NATIONAL PULSE While the "sharing economy" provides inexpensive services, it also lets businesses such as Uber and Airbnb skirt civil rights laws.

18 NATIONAL PULSE How inaccurate leads from IP addresses can prompt police to serve warrants on innocent people.

20 SUPREME COURT REPORT Discriminatory statements made in the privacy of jury rooms are subject to scrutiny.

22 Practice

ETHICS Proposed California rule may prohibit sexual relations between attorneys and their clients.

24 WORDS How to craft closers to finish strong in your briefs and motions.

26 Business of Law: Special Edition

BUILDING THE 21ST-CENTURY LAW FIRM

Why collaborative technologies should be top of mind for your firm.

31 LAW SCRIBBLER TBD Law's second conference skips the basics and brings together 50 innovators in an endeavor to improve the legal industry.

32 LAW PRACTICE New legal jobs make technology part of the career path.

62 Your ABA

Arizona Summit Law School offers a stipend for at-risk grads to put off the bar exam and prep for it.

64 Candidates for ABA president-elect and the Board of Governors have deep roots in the association.

70 As the new director of the association's Center on Children and the Law, Prudence Beidler Carr continues its legacy of putting children first.

72 Precedents

Four students at Kent State University are killed by the National Guard during Vietnam War protests.